

Aboriginal Artist Collection

ARTIST Amanda Hinkelmann

PRODUCT Dhaagun Linen Cushion

CUSHION STORY

The ground in which we walk is layered underneath, with stories, history and happenings. This piece reflects the layers of Country we walk on and the thousands of years of history that is below us. We are connected to Mother Earth and we rely on her to provide for us.

This piece shows the layers of Country and the complexities below us. The rich red hues and the soft yellows and sands that have once been above.

Represented within this piece is the layering of life and the stories Mother Earth holds sacred, from the people who have come before us.

Born on Wiradjuri Land in Wagga Wagga, Amanda is an exceptionally passionate and talented Aboriginal artist who has been creating breathtaking original artworks from her studio under the moniker 'Because of my Four' for many years now. Amanda's artworks share stories of resilience, strength, and the power of women. She draws inspiration from her hometown of Wagga Wagga, her family, and the Dreamtime - displaying Aboriginal culture and storytelling in her own contemporary Aboriginal art style, developed through impatience, intuition, and an innate desire to create at all costs.

