ARTWORK STORY

This artwork represents the journey from being a child to becoming a woman - learning throughout one's teenage years and growing through change and error, all with an optimistic outlook on what life may bring.

It portrays the groups of people that you will meet as you move through life and the many crossroads you will come to that will help steer your destiny.

Born on Wiradjuri Land in Wagga Wagga, Amanda is an exceptionally passionate and talented Aboriginal artist who has been creating breathtaking original artworks from her studio under the moniker 'Because of my Four' for many years now. Amanda's artworks share stories of resilience, strength, and the power of women. She draws inspiration from her hometown of Wagga Wagga, her family, and the Dreamtime - displaying Aboriginal culture and storytelling in her own contemporary Aboriginal art style, developed through impatience, intuition, and an innate desire to create at all costs.
