ARTWORK STORY

‘Children’

This piece reflects the relationship I have with my children as their mother and their carer.

It reflects how I feel about them and the emotions that are connected to my children.

They are represented within the piece in an almost spiritual, angelic manner. Radiating happiness and enjoyment. Radiating piece and groundedness. The sun is above them, warming the space and illuminating their glow.

Being a mother is the greatest gift I was given, and I am forever a better person for having these four little people in my life.

The lessons I provide for them, the love I give, will lead them into the future, fulfilled, happy and kind.

Born on Wiradjuri Land in Wagga Wagga, Amanda is an exceptionally passionate and talented Aboriginal artist who has been creating breathtaking original artworks from her studio under the moniker ‘Because of my Four’ for many years now. Amanda’s artworks share stories of resilience, strength, and the power of women. She draws inspiration from her hometown of Wagga Wagga, her family, and the Dreamtime - displaying Aboriginal culture and storytelling in her own contemporary Aboriginal art style, developed through impatience, intuition, and an innate desire to create at all costs.
